3. Function as an Object:

  - Write a function perform_operation(operation, num1, num2) that takes an operation function (add, subtract, multiply, or divide from previous class's task) and two numbers as arguments and performs the operation.